Transfers of personal information

We may share your personal information with any member of the IMD group of companies, or with selected third parties for direct marketing purposes, to enable you to access the services, provide you with customer support, and conduct the other activities described in this Policy. Such group companies may be located outside of South Africa, in which case the section below, "Where we store your data", will apply.

We use other companies, agents, or contractors ("Service Providers") to perform services on our behalf or to assist us with the provision of services to you. For example, we may engage Service Providers to provide market research, marketing (including competitions), advertising, communications, event management (including logistics, health and safety, and audio-visual services), meetings and bookings (including accommodation), training, IT, hosting and other infrastructure, subscription and discount management, payment processing, and data cleansing and processing services. In the course of providing such services, these Service Providers may have access to your personal information. We will always use our best efforts to ensure that all the Service Providers we work with will keep your personal data secure.

We may disclose your personal information to third parties:

- in the event that we sell or buy any business or assets, in which case we may disclose your personal data to the prospective seller or buyer of such business or assets;
- if any member of the IMD group or substantially all of its assets are acquired by a third party, in which case personal data about its customers will be one of the transferred assets; and

If you use one of our virtual products, for example websites, directory sites, or webinars, or register at an event, we may pass the information you provide to third parties. In some instances, for example a product listing site, you may reach out directly to a supplier or exhibitor who may contact you in return. In other instances, our virtual products are sponsored and, in such cases, the data you provided to us will be given to the sponsor. Generally, we will let you know at the time of collection if a product is sponsored. If you wish to change your contact preferences with an individual exhibitor/sponsor, please follow their own unsubscribe request details. Unsubscribing with one of our products will stop that product from contacting you in the future, but not the individual third parties whom you have interacted with independently.

Where we store your data

The data that we collect from you may be transferred to, and stored at, a destination outside South Africa. It may also be processed by staff operating outside South Africa who work for us or for one of our suppliers. Such staff may be engaged in, among other things, the provision of services to you or the processing of your payment details. You can request access to the information we hold about you by contacting us using the contact details set out below. We will endeavour to make our file of your information available to you within one month, although occasionally we may not be able to give you access to the personal information we hold about you (for example, we may not be able to give you access if it would unreasonably affect someone else's privacy or if giving you access poses a serious threat to someone's life, health, or safety).

You also have the right to be informed of the third parties to which we transfer your personal data within the scope of this privacy policy.

Your right to have your information corrected or deleted

If you have an account with us, you have the right to have your information corrected or deleted. Please send your request to privacy@interactmedia.co.za and we will action it as soon as possible.

Your right to object to us processing your data have the right to object to any results of a processing activity that prejudice your rights and that are conducted exclusively through automated systems.

You also have the right to ask us to stop processing your data for direct marketing purposes, including any profiling we undertake for the purposes of direct marketing. We will in any case only send you marketing communications if you have previously agreed to this, but if you change your mind, you can easily unsubscribe from our marketing communications at any time by following the instructions included in these marketing communications.

Please note that if you have consented to receiving offers from our partners, our partners are responsible for taking account of your rights, including your right to opt out of receiving offers from them. You may, however, at any time opt out of receiving offers from third parties by logging in to your user account and changing the settings. If you had previously opted in, your personal data will cease to be transmitted to our partners from the time your request is processed.

Your right to have your data transmitted to another organisation

Where we hold personal information about you with your consent or for the performance of a contract with you, you have the right to ask us to provide you with the personal information we hold about you in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format and, where technically feasible, to transmit that data to another organisation.

Lodging a complaint

You have the right to lodge a complaint with the data protection authorities if you believe that we have not complied with applicable data protection laws. You also have a right to claim damages if processing of your personal information violates applicable data protection laws.
